Frances L. Kelley
Executive Director
Indiana Professional Licensing Agency

Dear Ms. Kelley:

Pursuant to IC 4-22-2-28, The Indiana Economic Development Corporation ("IEDC") has reviewed the economic impact analysis for small businesses associated with rule changes proposed by the Indiana Professional Licensing Agency ("IPLA") on behalf of the State Board of Registration for Land Surveyors ("Board") and contained in LSA Document 09-270. The proposed rule amends sections of 856 IAC 1-13 through 856 IAC 1-15. The proposed rule establishes the continuing education requirements for registered land surveyors, establishes the requirements for continuing education providers, establishes the requirements and procedures for distance continuing education providers and registered land surveyors, and establishes the requirements for reactivation of an inactive license. The proposed rule also repeals rules concerning continuing education and continuing education providers.

The impact statement provided by IPLA indicates that the proposed rule will not create any impact on any small business. The IPLA does not anticipate any new annual reporting, administrative, or record keeping costs to be imposed on small businesses as a result of this rule.

The IEDC does not object to the economic impact to small business associated with this proposed rule. The statement provided by the IPLA indicates that they do not expect this proposed rule to have any economic impact on small businesses.
